

Students will develop their writing, speaking, listening and reading skills in various situations throughout their learning journey in order to communicate with French-speaking people and pass their GCSE exam.

