Home-School Learning Collaboration – Drama

Topics in this cycle: Play exploration: DNA by Dennis Kelly	Taught: Autumn 1	Year Group: Year 9
Key knowledge/concepts to be	e learnt ('Tell me about')	Websites/blogs/YouTube links and further reading to deepen and consolidate learning
Explore all the different set types and when the Explanation of composite, box set, naturalists. Which set would be best to perform the play need consider when design a set for a perform set of DNA?	ic and non-naturalistic set designs.  'Bang Out of Order'? What do you	DNA online play script:  DNA+-+FULL+PLAY.pdf (squarespace.com)  DNA short film:  DNA - Dennis Kelly Short Film - YouTube
How to utilise drama techniques to evoke en Exploration of the drama techniques mime of scene. Explanation of both techniques, how them into a scene to create an emotional re	and narration to present a sensitive and when should you incorporate	DNA Plot and characters:  DNA (Play) Plot & Characters   StageAgent  Character analysis:  Dennis Kelly DNA - Characters - Revision World
Explore the playwrights intention for the play the play. What does a Playwright's intentions mean? \ DNA? How does Dennis Kelly engage the au	What are the key themes in the play	Monologue example: Leah's monologue https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=PH_taT5fzKA
How to use non-verbal communication to pr Which characters has the highest power/sta what is your personal response to the characters How can we present conflict between the c	esent the characters emotions clearly. tus in DNA? cters in DNA?	Understanding hot-seating: Hot Seating - Drama Resource
How to develop a character for a scripted portion of the drama technique hot-sect How can we use hot seating to get into the How can we use whole class drama to explore how can we use an off-text scene to explore	nting and whole class frama? minds of the characters from DNA? ore the fate of the gang?

Home-School Learning Collaboration – Drama

Key Vocabulary and Definitions To Be Learnt  What Will The Assessment Look Like		What Will The Assessment Look Like?
Composite set	A stage setting where several locations are shown on stage at the same time e.g. a street. Lighting is often used to highlight and move between each section.	The focus will always link to an aspect of Drama explored in the lessons this terms focus explores
Non-naturalistic set	A set which does not represent a specific location or place where the scene is set.  themes, drama techniques and chard End of Unit test: 30 minutes / Total mar
Box set	Naturalistic setting of a complete room built from flats with only the side nearest the audience (the fourth wall) missing.	Section A: Retention questions worth 10 marks - Conventions of a script, Drama techniques and character analysis.
Blocking	Blocking is the process of deciding where the actors stand and move to during a scene. It is the role of the director to block out the scene.
Mime	A drama technique whereby the actors communicate an emotion, meaning or an idea without words, focusing only on gesture, expression, and movement.	sture, expression, and  - Explain how you would use your non-verbal skills to characterise one of the characters from the play.  SPaG: worth 3 marks
	A description of the fall the second of the	- Spelling, punctuation, and grammar.
Narration	A drama Technique designed to tell the story or provide accompanying information. Narration can accompany on stage action or be presented in its own right.	Family Learning Opportunities
Themes	A theme is a recurring idea that's present throughout the performance/play.	<ul> <li>Read the play DNA by Dennis Kelly.</li> <li>Create mini models of the different types of set designs: Box set, composite set, naturalistic set and non-naturalistic set.</li> <li>Have a go at hot-seating the different characters from the play – create questions to answer in character.</li> </ul>
Non-verbal communication	How an actor communicates or expresses themselves using their body. Also known as physical skills; there are 7 different skills we use in drama.
Verbal communication	How an actor communicates or expresses themselves using their voices. Also known as vocal skills; there are 7 different skills we use in drama.
Hot-seating	An explorative strategy used during the rehearsal stage used to gain a deeper understanding of a character or role. An individual sits in a chair designated as the 'hot seat'. The rest of the group asks the person in the hot

Home-School Learning Collaboration – Drama

seat relevant questions about their feelings, thoughts, actions or circumstances. The person in the hot seat answers the questions in role or as they think the character they are playing would answer.